Re: Vice Mayor Cano

Dear Mr. Torres:

This firm represents Ms. Jacqueline L. Reynoso of the National City Chamber of Commerce in connection with the above-referenced matter. Please direct any future correspondence or communications to this office.

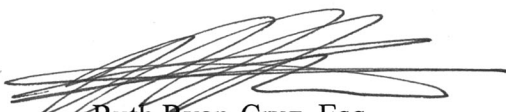

I am now in receipt of your letter dated September 9, 2016 addressed to Ms. Reynoso. The purpose of this letter is to inform you that Ms. Reynoso has been advised, and fully agrees, to refrain from conducting any further activities in connection with the letter authored by National City Chamber of Commerce member, Ms. Maza, dated August 12, 2016.

As expressed to your client in a letter drafted by the National City Chamber of Commerce's Executive Committee on September 12, 2016, Ms. Reynoso does not have a direct interest in Ms. Maza's correspondence or its content. Ms. Reynoso was merely acting under the strict belief of assisting a chamber member in alignment with the National City Chamber of Commerce's mission as she would have generally assisted any other chamber member. Ms. Reynoso did not act with malice or with any ulterior motive. Ms. Reynoso extends an apology to your client for her actions and involvement concerning this matter.

With such immediate cooperation by Ms. Reynoso, it is our desire that this issue be resolved through this correspondence confirming compliance with your September 9th letter.

Sincerely,

RYAN-CRUZ LAW, APC

Ruth Ryan-Cruz, Esq.
