I do, between school and CCI I am in meetings fairly solid until about 4 today. I could meet after that time.

Tomorrow I have more availability, especially in the morning. I do have a meeting at 3:30.

I think that could be a good solution, but I do think we should have another conversation as soon as possible, so we are all on the same page going forward. Cat's out of the bag and we do have different needs now.

When are you all available?

I think Robin may have a time issue today.

Several of the large hotels asked me to see if you would consider a contract extension as we work through the challenges with this years convention.

My request is for Comic-Con to consider a one year extension to the current contract which runs through 2024. The extension would change that agreement to include 2025. Appreciate your consideration of this request.
